Snow helps, but won't aid wheat crop

A 3½-inch snow Monday morning may have given a psychological boost to Canyon area residents, but it couldn't break the back of a prolonged drought which has already taken its toll on what might have been a $12 million wheat crop.

"I wish it had just come two months earlier," one Randall County wheat farmer sighed as large, wet flakes piled up on city streets, melting almost as fast as they fell.

Canyon received an official .82 inches of moisture from the snow, which began falling well before dawn Monday and continued until about noon. Temperatures through the day remained around the freezing mark until they broke into the 40s during the afternoon.

"The main thing," County Agent John Brazzil said of the snow, "is that it's a psychological thing. We can still get moisture. It makes us all feel better."

Brazzil said the moisture will make no significant contribution to the long-suffering wheat crop. The moisture, nevertheless, was the most in any one storm since late summer and the first measurable precipitation in Canyon since the year began.

A good percentage of the dryland wheat in the county, according to Brazzil, never had enough moisture to get a good stand in the fall.

"We've lost a considerable portion of the wheat already," he said.

Also lost to Randall County farmers already has been what in the past amounted to a good income from cattle operations, he said.

"The majority of the income in Randall County is from livestock and this includes income from cow-calf operations, stocker cattle brought in to graze on wheat, from the feedlots in the county and from swine and dairy herds," he said. "With the non-development of fall and winter wheats, we ended up with a minimum number of stocker cattle in the county."

With the lack of growth on dryland wheat, which is planted on about 120,000 acres here, stocker cattle production was off steeply for the winter, he said. In addition, cow-calf operators were hit by higher than usual prices because of the lack of grazing potential.

While wheat is known in the county to be a variable crop because the bulk of it is dryland, Brazzil said it has been extremely important in recent years and has, in fact, returned to dominate the cash crop production picture here in two of the last three years.

Last year, agriculturists projected the value of the crop at between $12 and $15 million.

This year, Brazzil is predicting a cash value of only $3 or $4 million from wheat.

Pat Maynard of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service here said officials from his office have already appraised the wheat situation on 25 area farms to assess drought damage for federal abandonment payments.

In the next two to three weeks, he said, an even larger influx of business is expected as farmers begin abandoning their wheat to prepare for summer crop production.

"We anticipate this thing to be a major program here this year," he said.

Maynard said any farmer who wishes to apply for the federal payments should contact the ASCS office for an appointment when officials can inspect the crop.

As spring with its high winds approaches, the dry soil conditions may cause some concern for farmers.

But, Don Dolle of the Soil Conservation Service said he anticipates no particular blowing dirt problems this year.

"We have a lot of stubble still on the ground," he said. "I don't see any problem until next year, if we have poor conditions in the summer and fall."

"People are doing the best they can. As wheat starts being abandoned — and it's definitely going to be abandoned — they're going to plow it and that'll hold it."

While the wheat crop may be Stalled cars and snowmen were just two of the results Monday of a morning snow which left 3½ inches on the ground in Canyon. Most of the snow had melted before Canyon school children could get home to play in it, but Darin Chennault, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chennault, and his grandmother, spent a good portion of the morning fashioning this snow creation.

Informal meet ends land stalemate

Representatives of the Canyon and Amarillo school districts broke through a three-year stalemate on school land transfers Tuesday and both district boards are to meet in the near future to renew discussions on the topic.

Canyon Board President Tom Keeling announced Tuesday

night he and Supt. Jerry Jacobs had met earlier that day with Amarillo Board President Pete Dallas and Supt. Robert Ashworth to discuss the orderly transfer of school lands from one district to the other.

Ashworth hailed the 1½-hour meeting as "constructive."

The four men apparently generally agreed Tuesday to work up tentative guidelines which both boards would follow in the future when confronted with a land transfer request. Those guidelines are to be presented to a joint meeting of the school boards.

Keeling said Tuesday night the four representatives had discussed the possible transfer of two sections of land west of Coulter Road and north of Hillside to the Amarillo district from the Canyon district.

The guidelines to be worked up, he said, would relate to a reimbursement schedule and to the legal requirements for land transfers.

"This will probably relieve Amarillo's growth situation and maybe help our situation, not immediately — it'll not help our immediate situation at all," he said.

He said the sections now under discussion are relatively uninhabited and indicated the Canyon board would probably require that a payment of about $200 per acre be paid the local district by any developers desiring de-annexation.

Emmett Fuqua of Quien Sabe Investment Corporation of Amarillo handed the board a check for $59,000 Tuesday night along with a petition asking that a 300-acre tract of land to be called Puckett Place West be de-annexed from the Canyon district. His petition was accepted and signed by the board.

Keeling said the reopening of negotiations with the Amarillo board is consistent with the policy adopted by the board in December to allow de-annexations in a piecemeal fashion as requested by developers.

Jacobs told board members Tuesday night the situation concerning de-annexations of property has changed substantially since Canyon and Amarillo board members first entered negotiations three years ago. At that time, he noted, Amarillo wanted Canyon to release as much as 11 sections of land. The Canyon board had refused.

Fuqua, who last fall had approached the board with the idea of paying $200 per acre for potential lost revenue to the district, presented a petition bearing one name to the board Tuesday night.

Under state law, the board may

More than one-third returned

Voter registration 'nightmare'

At first it was just a headache, but now county tax office officials are calling the recent state mandate for new voter registration certification a nightmare.

During the past week more than one-third — or more than 10,000 — voter registration certificates have been returned to the county tax office as undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Service for one reason or another.

Of that number many will have to be re-mailed —

at another 13-cent cost each.

Already, County Tax Assessor Collector Mrs. Audrey Bruse estimates, the county has been out $15,000 on the new voter registration procedure.

There seemed little doubt the cost will go even higher when officials began receiving the non-deliverable mail last week, to the tune of several thousand pieces of mail per day.

Monroe Carr, tax office deputy who is handling the mailing of the registration certificates, said about 5,000 certificates have been returned through the mails because the registrant no longer lives at the address and left no forwarding address.

Another 5,000, he said, have been returned because of inaccurate or wrong addresses.

There are about 30,000 names on the county's voter registration lists.

Mrs. Josie Towery, who is also involved in the certification effort, said only those names for which the office received undeliverable returned certificates can be dropped from the voter registration rolls.

If the office receives a returned certificate but an address correction is attached, employees are required by law to send out a formal notice to the old address. If nothing is heard from the registrant, a cancellation notice is sent after the expiration of 60 days and the name is

Principals cite problem in school overcrowding

Canyon school principals are bracing for another influx of students next fall, but told school board members Tuesday night they will have or will make room for the children even though student-teacher ratios may suffer.

Classroom availability has reached the critical stage at three campuses, board members were told.

It is most critical even this year at Gene Howe Elementary School in the north part of the district, Principal Luther Lawless reported. He said he has problems right now which will only intensify in the future.

"We're having more trouble now than we will next year," he said, noting that staff plans are to change the current elementary attendance lines to reduce the number of pupils at Gene Howe for the fall.

Lawless said he has three teachers for 92 first graders, three teachers for 90 second graders, three teachers for 89 third graders and three teachers for 92 sixth graders.

He asked for, but no action was taken on the request, a rotating teacher to help relieve the class loads of some of the teachers.

Bob Parks, principal of Rex Reeves Elementary School, noted that three classrooms should be available next year for students because the kindergarten classes and special education offices are to be moved in the fall to the school administration building.

Projecting an increase of at least 160 new students for Rex Reeves in the fall due to the redrawing of school boundary lines, he said he thinks the school can handle the enrollment.

A crowded situation was reported by Dave Corley, principal at junior high, and John Sommer, high school principal.

Two portable classrooms are to be in use at the high school for the fall.

Supt. Jerry Jacobs told board members overcrowding won't be the only problem the district will face in the fall.

Because of inflation and mandated expense increases, he said, the board can expect to have to finance a budget for the next year

(See PROBLEMS, Page 7)

Federal land controls scored by commission

Randall County commissioners Monday resolved to oppose any kind of federally promulgated land use control or regulation.

They unanimously passed a resolution presented by Commissioner Jim Fletcher opposing "any type of legislation pertaining to federal land use control being pursued by any branch of the federal government."

Copies of the resolution are to be sent to Texas congressmen and specifically to U.S. Rep. Jack Hightower and Sens. John Tower and Lloyd Bentsen.

It is also to go to the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association next week for consideration as a resolution for adoption by that body.

Fletcher, when asking last week to have the resolution item placed on Monday's agenda, said current legislation pending in Congress would require land owners who post "no hunting" signs on their property to comply with the signs.

He indicated the county should be responsible for land use control.

In other business Monday, commissioners heard a complaint from Jack Tompkins, who lives in the northwest part of the county concerning the passability of county roads in the area. But, commissioners took no action.

"The roads are almost to a deplorable state," Tompkins told commissioners, charging that all caliche has worn off certain roads and other roads are virtually impassable even in driest weather.

He asked if it would be possible for the county to put any kind of surface on the roads, particularly 77th and 81st, running east and west, and Arden and Coulter Roads.

"It'd take $16,000 a mile to pave," Commissioner John Fulgenzi replied. "I have no reason against going in and paving them except it costs $16,000 a mile. That's not in the budget. There's no way."

Tompkins pleaded for an all-weather road to serve the area.

But, Fulgenzi contended that

Canyon North controversy back on plan commission agenda

After a two-month wait, Canyon planning and zoning commissioners are expected to consider tonight a controversial final plat approval request from Developer A.W. Lair for Canyon North, a subdivision city officials say violates city ordinances.

Lair, the developer of Hunsley Hills, said Tuesday he has filed a final plat for the section of land just north of Hunsley Road, west of the Canyon Expressway and east of VFW Road.

In addition, he said, he has filed a request that the planning and zoning commission grant a variance for the development to allow him to construct streets in the development to meet county road specifications rather than city street requirements.

Lair said the final plat reflects plans for a planned community to be developed on the section and an 80-acre tract east of the Canyon Expressway. Lots platted in the development will range in size from one to five acres, he said.

"The restrictions will be pretty high," he said. "It will be kind of like the Paradise Valley between Phoenix and Scottsdale. There will be restrictions where fences have to be uniform and houses and architecture have to be a certain size and style."

Lair said restrictions will prohibit the use of cesspools, although each home in the development must provide approved sanitation devices for waste disposal. In addition, each house will have to provide its own water system.

The local attorney said even if Randall County commissioners feel the current road in the development doesn't meet county road specifications and refuse to accept the road for maintenance, he will assume that responsibility. He contends, though, that the road is constructed to county standards.

Lair's Canyon North project ran into head-on opposition from City Manager Glen Metcalf and City Attorney Elton Cox in December when a preliminary plat was presented the planning and zoning commission.

At that time, Metcalf charged Lair was violating the city's ordinances by developing the property without having approval for his plans.

Metcalf has also contended that the city should annex the Canyon North property into the city limits to impose city zoning and development requirements to avoid future problems.

He has said, for example, that if Lair is able to develop the subdivision as planned, it may cause headaches for the city at some future time.

Lair contends the property will be an asset to the city rather than a liability.

Other items scheduled for tonight's planning and zoning commission meeting are:

"A zoning request for Unit 6 of Hunsley Hills, the area across the Palo Duro Creek along VFW Road. Currently, the zoning for the area is agricultural and Lair is seeking residential zoning."

Tennis team hosts tourney

West Texas State's top-flight tennis team goes back into the familiar surroundings of the WTSU Activities Center this weekend to host Oklahoma, Oral Roberts, and Angelo State in a four-team indoor tournament.

The Buffs are currently 9-5 on the season after splitting a pair of matches with Oklahoma and New Mexico in Lubbock last weekend. The Buffs topped UNM 6-3 but dropped a match to OU by the same score.

This weekend, the Sooners and Angelo State start the tournament with a Friday afternoon match. Friday night at six, the Buffaloes meet Oral Roberts University. The winners play at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Activities Center, while the consolation match is going on the WTSU Laykold courts outside.

WT holds a 4-2 series record over the Titans, including an opening round win in this tournament last year. ORU, with only one player from the United States, brings an international flavor to the meet, according to WT Coach David Kent.

"It will be kind of a fun match, putting all of our Texas and Southwest boys against their foreign kids," he says. "They put on a good show."

The other opening match will pit OU, an annual power in the Big Eight, against up-and-coming Angelo State. West Texas State and Oklahoma are favored to make Saturday morning's finals.

"We'd like another crack at OU," Kent readily attests. "They laid it on us last week, and we don't think that they are that much of a better team than we are. They do have an outstanding team."

Steve Johnson (8-5) and Brett Hall (9-5) will man the top two singles slots for the Buffs with Todd Reed (9-4), Jay Goss (10-4), Doug Davis (9-5), and Joe Dan McBeth (5-1) rounding out the lineup.

McBeth replaces Bobby Kleinecke in the starting lineup, while Hall and Johnson will probably alternate at the number one singles position.

In doubles, Kent plans some changes. Hall and Johnson (5-1) will team up at number one. Reed and Davis (0-0) at number two, and McBeth and Goss (1-0) at number three.

This weekend's competition will be the Buffs' last for two weeks. Kent has announced that he will not send his team south for scheduled matches at Baylor and Lamar, and for the Rice University tournament on March 18-19. Next up will be a home dual match with Amarillo College on March 26.

Tracksters to NCAA

West Texas State University makes its first appearance ever in the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships this weekend as Joseph Kemei Tony shoots for the 1,000-yard run title.

Tony, a sophomore from Eldoret, Kenya, shot to a 2:09.1 clocking at the Missouri Valley Conference championships in Columbia, Mo., on March 1, the fourth fastest time by a collegian this year. It broke the old MVC record by almost five seconds.

Tony will run a qualifying race Friday night. Six runners will form Saturday afternoon's finals. Boston College's Keith Francis has the best time in the nation, a 2:07.3 clocking.

Tony already is WT's first track All-American, earning the honor with a second place finish at the USTFF Indoor meet in Oklahoma City last month. His 2:11.2 time was his old school record.

Watercolor entry on exhibit

A watercolor entry by Dr. Emilio Caballero, art instructor at West Texas State University, has been selected for exhibition during the 27th annual exhibition of the Texas Watercolor Society at the McNay Art Institute in San Antonio, Texas.

Caballero's painting titled "Tiempo" (Time Reveals All Truths) was on exhibit last week and has also been selected for the circuit tour of ten Texas cities. From 491 entries by 244 artists, only 75 were selected for the viewing with Robert Eric Moore, American watercolorist, serving as the juror.

Dr. Caballero has had two of the top purchase awards at the Annual Watercolor Exhibitions for the past two years.

LOOK-ALIKE AND SOUND-ALIKE DRUGS!

The proper reading and interpretation of prescriptions is one of the most important responsibilities we have. That is why we are so careful when we take a prescription over the phone, or decipher a hard to read handwriting. We must avoid dispensing of a drug product not intended by the doctor.

We have a list of over 1,000 drugs that when pronounced, their names sound very much alike or that look-alike if written or read in a hurry. Some drugs both sound and look-alike such as digoxin and digoxin, quinidine and quinine.

CHS wins Pampa tourney

Canyon High downed Pampa 12-1 in the first game and beat Dumas 3-2 in the second game to win the Pampa baseball tournament last Friday.

CHS batters pounded 16 hits against Pampa, led by a home run in the first inning by Matt Madewell.

Joe Luquette collected two doubles for the game and Ron Hickman, Jay Huey and Randy Langen all got doubles.

With Terry Mick pitching and Greg Taylor behind the plate, Pampa managed only one run, cashing in on a walk and a double in the second inning.

In the second game, Hoss Ratliff held Dumas to three hits and struck out 11 batters.

Canyon scored two runs in the second inning when Ratliff singled and then scored on an error and then a walk and an error brought Ron Hickman in.

They added the winning run in the fourth inning, when Langen cashed a walk and an error.

Canyon took on Palo Duro on Saturday for the second time this year, and, unlike the first game, lost this time, 17-12.

Coach Mike Auld summed up the game saying "For us, we had 10 hits and earned 12 runs. We played with a lot of walks and errors. Palo Duro had eight hits and got 17 runs."

Canyon pitchers were Tracy Martin, Ricky Cooper and Ches Bostic.

Canyon will play Caprock here today at 4 p.m. and will meet Amarillo High there Saturday at 1 p.m. They will also play March 17, 18, 19 in the Hereford tournament and, have a second game scheduled March 19 here against Tascosa.

Golfers place second in Lubbock

Canyon High golfers took second place last week at Lubbock in the season's first tournament.

Bill Turner and Bryan Garner, who both shot 75s on the second day of the match, were named 3-A medalists. Garner took the honors at Hillcrest course and Turner was medalist at the Meadowbrook course.

The CHS team shot a 346 on Friday to qualify for the second round. Turner turned in an 82 and Garner an 84 to lead the team.

In the second round, Jerry Paul Allen shot an 84 and Roger McNab an 83, which added to the 75s by Turner and Allen, brought the team total to 663 for the tournament.

Brownville finished first with 643 and Levelland took third with a 674.

Golf coach B. B. Kendrick was pleased with the results of the first tournament, after only a week of practice.

"That's pretty good for this early in the season," he said.

Canyon High can expect a good team this year if some of the younger golfers come around, he said.

"The younger kids are going to have to shoot in the 70's," he said. "If we do that, we'll win the district."

CHS golfers have won district title in five of the last seven years and have qualified for regional competition in six of the last seven years.

Turner, the only senior, and Bryan, a junior, are sure to hold down the first two team spots, Kendrick said. He expects good competition from the remaining 11 team members for the third, fourth and fifth spots.

"Golf is the most competitive of all sports," said Kendrick. "More than football, basketball, any of them."

Mark Peters was high scorer for Happy with 18 points. Larry McKelvey was next with 12. Tim Moudy, Brent Morrison and J.T. Henry each had six. Vincent Venhaus had two.

THE BIG NEWS is moisture. On Wednesday evening of last week, we received around a half inch of rain. Some more fell on Sunday.

Then Monday snow began to fall — about six inches of it. That snow contained around .60 inches of moisture. It was beautiful as it fell straight down, noiselessly. It piled an inch high on the rose bushes outside the kitchen window before their limbs began to shed the heavy snow.

As I traveled to Lubbock on Monday, I noticed the snow lasted well into the north edge of Plainview. From there to Hale Center only the northern edge of the furrows were covered. Only a few large flakes were reported to have fallen in Lubbock.

But our snow lasted into Tuesday. It was almost noon before the last of it disappeared.

Have a good day!

Mary Neal

Chamber plans fundraising efforts for future projects

Chamber of Commerce directors Monday night set in motion a variety of fund-raising efforts to support chamber projects this year, but took no action on the question of industrial development for the city.

Discussion of industrial development was postponed until the board meeting in April due to the illness this week of Chamber President Don Johnston.

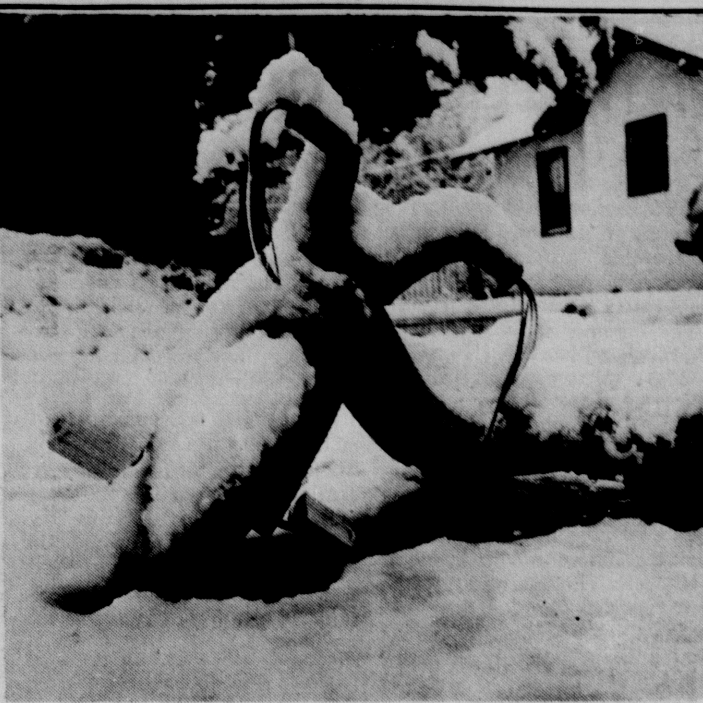

Fund-raising campaigns were launched Monday night to finance the purchase of $1500 worth of Texas state flags for placement on light poles throughout the city during the summer months.

Chamber Manager Roland Black reported that no flags now on hand are suitable for flying this summer and all new flags must be purchased if the program is to continue. The board voted to continue the program.

Funds will also be sought for a bigger-than-usual 4th of July fireworks program this summer.

Black said about $1500 will be needed for that effort also. In other business, the board voted to maintain offices at the current location rather than ask city commissioners to lease the old city hall building for chamber use.

The decision came after acting-chairman Phil Langen reported that utility cost alone for the old building would amount to about what the chamber is now paying for monthly rent.

Snows heralded springtime break as students have holiday March 15-19.

which will reflect a $250,000 increase over the current year budget.

Legislation reducing the state's share of the local education burden and an attorney general's opinion on the collection of student fees will up the local share significantly, he said.

The board will begin work on the next year budget in April.

Nevertheless, board members acted unanimously Tuesday night to continue to pay local teachers at a rate $500 above the state's minimum salary schedule next year.

In other business, B.R. Cantrell, architect for a new elementary school for the district, presented two new plans for a school, one reflecting an open concept approach and one more enclosed.

The more open concept has about 41,000 square feet while the more enclosed design has 46,000 square feet, he told the board.

Jacobs asked the board to decide whether the architect should proceed with final plans for a new elementary school and what classroom approach should be taken, but the board did not make any comment.

W.V. McAlpin, administrative assistant, told the board the school staff is still considering possible site locations for a new elementary school.

He said current thinking is the possibility of placing a school somewhere along McCormick Road in an effort to eliminate the need for busing about 150 students. But, he said, other factors are also involved in site selection.

Sommer recommended and the board approved a new procedure for selecting the photographic studio which will provide annual pictures for high school students. Under the procedure, a committee will be formed of class sponsors and the yearbook sponsor to hear presentations from photo studios and make a recommendation to Sommer.

The board approved a 1976-77 school year calendar which parallels to a large extent the calendar to be used by West Texas State University.

Christmas holidays and spring break will be the same for the district and university. School will begin next fall on Aug. 19 and will be out on May 31.

placing caliche on the roads would be unsatisfactory because of the high traffic count on the roads.

"One of the problems is that we got a lot of people who live out there — think of 80 trailers — and from the entire area the total net income is about $800 per year," Fulgenzi countered. "How do you match $24,000 with $800?"

"The other suggestion is that you could ask us to put you in a paving district and we'll pave it for you and then back-charge for it."

"I don't think the absentee owners would go for it," Tompkins said. "But, I still say somebody is going to get kicked in the head by a horse or something out there and you're not going to be able to get them out."

Tompkins challenged that the county should at least maintain the roads.

"I thought the county had sold their equipment," he said.

Commissioner Dee Griffin contended the roads should be maintained as well as possible.

Commissioners reviewed for the fourth week their proposed county employee personnel policy but took no action.

Despite flu, students have test exemptions

School of Law.

Henson said testimony will be heard during the day in favor of or in opposition to the proposed issuance of weather modification permits by the water development board to the Plains Weather Improvement Association of Hale County or Atmospherics, Inc., of Littlefield.

Both groups have asked for four-year permits to conduct weather modification activities in wide-spread areas of the Panhandle, including the southern portions of Randall County. They say their primary effort is reduction of hail.

Henson's group contends that in the effort to control hail, the weather modifiers are also stopping rainfall in Panhandle counties. They oppose the issuance of such permits.

Randall County commissioners have gone on record by resolution twice in the past year in opposition to weather modification efforts in or over the county.

Last week, members of the Panhandle County Judges and Commissioners Association, which is headed by Randall County Commissioner Jim Fletcher, passed a similar resolution.

The TWDB held two hearings last month, one in Plainview and one in Littlefield, to hear unsworn testimony concerning the permit requests.

Despite flu, students have test exemptions

Despite a flu outbreak last quarter, only slightly more Canyon High students lost their exam exemptions in the second quarter than they did in the first.

For the first quarter, 71 per cent of CHS students were exempt from quarter tests, while at the end of the second quarter, 69 per cent got to skip the exams.

Students may choose not to take quarter exams if they are passing the subject, have had no more than one absence and two tardies from classes and have committed no major discipline infractions during the quarter.

Overall attendance at the high school is much higher this year than last.

For the first 120 days of the school year, attendance has averaged 97.03 per cent, according to Willie McAlpin, administrative assistant for the Canyon school district.

Attendance last year was 93.59 for the entire year, he said.

This is the first year the exemption policy has been in effect. It was begun as a trial at the high school and, last six weeks, was extended to the ninth grade at the junior high.

"Just for the six-weeks, the exemption didn't make any difference in their attendance at all," commented McAlpin.

The attendance exemption will be continued for the rest of the year for ninth graders, he said.

High school principal John Sommer said he favored the policy.

"At this point, it looks pretty good," he said. "It is easy to administer. I believe that because of the simplicity of the policy, we can be pretty fair with it. I like it."

Sommer said the main criticisms concerned excused absences and the tendency for students to come to school just to maintain their exempt status.

"We noticed that we had some kids in school that should have been home," he said. "The only other question raised on it has been those children who have had to be absent because of a funeral. But there have been very few questions raised."

Absences for school-sponsored activities do not affect the exemption.

Resident's father buried in Friona

Funeral services for G. B. "Pete" Buske, 67, were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Friona with burial at Friona Cemetery.

Mr. Buske, a cattleman and active community leader in Friona, had been named as Friona's Man of the Year in 1970. He was responsible for the suggestion of making cattle feeding a large scale business for Friona as early as 1958.

Born in Anson, March 30, 1908, Mr. Buske died Sunday at Parmer County Hospital. He had been a leader in establishing the hospital for the city and had served on the hospital's board of directors for 26 years.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church, the Friona Evening Lions Club and served on the board of directors for High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo. He was on the board of the High Plains Savings and Loan Association in Hereford and was a director of the Friona Industries and on the director's board for the First National Bank in Canyon.

Survivors include the widow, Myrl; three daughters, Mrs. Deann Styles of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Lila Gay Vars of Canyon and Phila Mae Weatherly of Friona; a son, B. K. "Kim" of Friona; four sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Young of Abernathy, Mrs. Ollie Nichols of Happy, Mrs. Charlene Nichols of Klamath Falls, Oregon and Mrs. Lois Webb of Medford, Oregon; four brothers, W. F. and J. B., both of Friona, J. F. of Abernathy and C. R. of Amarillo and eight grandchildren.

Library board discusses business

Canyon Public Library board members met Monday afternoon in the City Hall Complex for the regular business session with chairman, Walt Shelly, presiding as minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved and other business attended to.

The library board heard a list of 48 new books and 13 gift books which had been presented to the library since the last meeting. The board voted approval of the new books.

The board's plans for a public book review were discussed and it was announced that the previously planned March 11 review by local ministers had been cancelled due to conflicts. Other book reviews for the public will be considered in future months with Terry White, board member, as chairman of the committee to arrange the reviews.

Library board members heard a report that the pre-school story hours have had attendance of 30 children for the past two Thursday afternoons. The storyhours are held from 3:15 to 3:45 p.m.

One open house of the library facility, held in conjunction with the opening of the City Complex, was well attended by the general public and that the circulation of the library was nearly normal despite the week's closing prior to the relocation.

Mary Huntington, librarian, is presently keeping a record of the number of library patrons using the facility during the new hours. She noted in the report to the board that more people seem to be using the facility during the extended morning hours than during the evening session.

A listing of items needed by the library was prepared for presentation to University Study Club, which has indicated they have funds available to purchase a gift for the new library.

The library has recently received a new clock, which had been made by Dr. J. B. Roberts. The clock was presented to the library by Dr. Roberts, a former member of the library board.

Next meeting of the library board will be April 12. Attending the board meeting this week were Walt Shelly, chairman, Kathy Glazener, Claire Kuehn, Ted Freidell and librarian, Mary Huntington, and Tom Plumlee, administrative assistant.

IT'S YOU
By R. W. Glover

If you want to live in the kind of town

That's the kind of town you like.

You needn't slip your clothes in a grip

And start on a long, long hike.

You'll find elsewhere what you left behind

For there's nothing that's really new.

It's a knock at yourself to knock your town

It isn't your town, it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid

Lest someone else gets ahead.

When everyone works, and nobody shirks

You can raise a town from the dead.

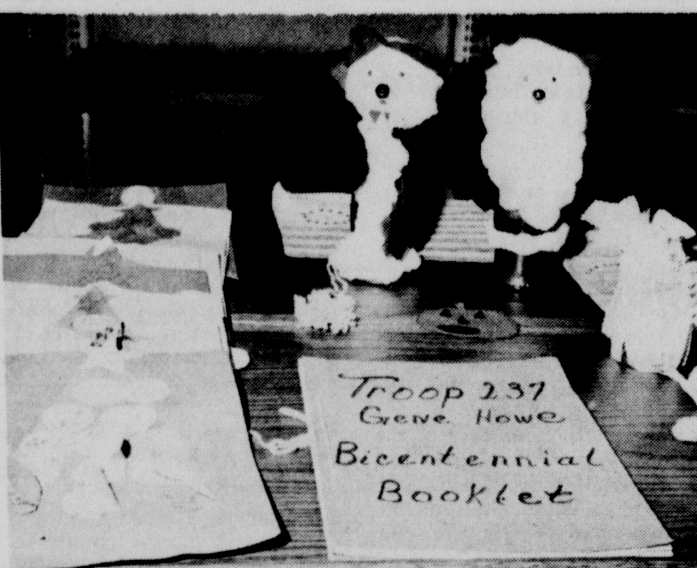

And if while you make your stake,

Your neighbor can make one too.

Your town will be what you want to see.

It isn't your town, it's you!

There have been dramatic changes in agriculture during the last 60 years... new machines, new crops, new methods. But the real production miracle is still the American farmer or rancher himself — one dedicated individual with a willingness to take chances with success or failure. We are proud that when a man of this caliber needs long term credit, he looks to his Federal Land Bank Association.

American agriculture's real strength has always been the man and the land.

Snow a sign of power of prayer

By KAROLYN FARMER
SUPERMAN, ACCORD-ING TO his famous introduction, was more powerful than a locomotive. Most men have learned the hard way about the persuasive powers we women possess.

And even though most American families spend numerous hours in front of the old TV set, we still can't underestimate the power of the press.

But if the beautiful snowfall of last Monday is any indication — and I'm confident it is — then fortunately the ultimate power
 still lies in prayer.

One of the national TV networks recently sponsored a contest to find a new slogan for America during this Bicentennial year. I never did hear what the winning slogan was, but there's no way we could ever do better than, "In God We Trust."

SEVERAL CHANGES
HAVE taken place at Gene Howe School in recent weeks.

Cindy Lasell, formerly one of the 5th grade teachers, is now working in the LLD program at Rex Reeves. Cindy moved into the spot vacated by Jan Winstead, who is expecting a new addition to her family.

Originally from Galveston, Cindy got her Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education from Texas Tech. She began her teaching career at Gene Howe, where she has taught on the 5th grade level for the past five years. Cindy also attended WT, where she got her Master's Degree and qualified as an Educational Diagnostician.

Besides being busy getting adjusted to a new school and new students, Cindy is also occupied at home with several new additions to her "family." Her dog Misty, a Scottie, just had four puppies last Thursday. Cindy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A.D.
 Lasell, who live in Galveston.

Leaving Gene Howe, Cindy
 says, was certainly not an easy thing to do. She says it's impossible not to miss her students and friends, but she's really excited, too, about the new direction her teaching career has taken.

PAM BOATRIGHT HAS
 taken Cindy Lasell's place at Gene Howe. Pam is certainly no stranger at the school, having done her practice teaching in Mary Jo Smith's 5th grade class
 last spring.

Miss Canyon signups are being taken

All Canyon High School girls are eligible to enter the contest
 for selecting "Miss Canyon 1976" and registration of entries has begun.

 by a local business or organization and register with the Canyon Study Club pageant
 co-chairmen, Sandra McRoberts, 655-9420, or Andrea Metcalf, 655-3318.

Sponsor fees are set at $15 per contestant and all sponsors and contestants must be registered by the application deadline of March 26.

Miss Canyon 1976 will be crowned in a public pageant
 April 10 at the Canyon High School auditorium. The pageant will begin at 7:30 p.m. and tickets will be available at the door that evening.

Contestants will be judged in appropriate Sunday styled dresses at the pageant. They will also be judged at a pre-pageant cocktail party on personality and poise and will participate in two pre-pageant rehearsals.

Miss Canyon 1976 will reign
 during the bicentennial summer celebration and will be eligible to represent Canyon in a number of area contests this spring, according to Judy Becknell,
 president of the sponsoring club.

Demos to meet

The Randall County
 Democratic Party executive committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the courthouse county courtroom to lay out the May primary ballot.

Lots will be drawn for name placement on the ballot during the meeting.

After graduation from WT in May with an Elementary Education major and a subject concentration in art, Pam assisted Mary Jo Smith in the summer school math classes.

Beginning this past fall, Pam has been working as an assistant to Ellen Wilson, who is the Diagnostician at Gene Howe
 School.

Pam's husband, Bill, is a CPA
 with the Amarillo firm of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell. Both Bill and Pam are originally from Carlsbad, N.M. and now live at Siesta Park.

Their only "family" right now
 is a lovable cockapoo named Brady.

SHEILA WATLEY IS the newest addition to the staff at Gene Howe. Sheila is well qualified for her new position as Physical Education Assistant to Gary Beasley. Another "special" part of her job is helping supervise the bus children after
 school.

Originally from Spearman,
 Sheila was chosen for the All-State Basketball Team for three years while in high school. She then attended Wayland Baptist University for one year, where she played for the Flying Queens.

Now a student at WT, Sheila is a candidate for graduation in May with majors in physical education and English. Her ambition is to coach high school basketball.

Andy Watley, Sheila's husband of almost two years, is also a WT student, majoring in plant science. After graduation this spring, Andy plans to work in some area of soil conservation or possibly as a teacher in vocational agriculture. He is originally from Vega.

The Watleys especially enjoy playing tennis and golf. Another of their favorite pastimes is western dancing. Sheila is also an accomplished guitarist.

Their dog Lulu, which Sheila says is a "dachapoo," rounds out
 the Watley family.

MILLER AND VONCEIL
 Cunningham and their daughter Vonda Kay now make their home in the Gene Howe area. Miller, who is originally from Perryton,
 is employed by Safeway.

Vonceil, a native of Tahoka, does substitute teaching during the day. She also teaches typing and shorthand classes three nights each week at Amarillo College.

The Cunningham's daughter,
 Vonda Kay, is nineteen months
 old.

Miller and Vonceil like all kinds of sports and especially enjoy attending the WT football and basketball games.

MARGUERITE AND RO-BERT L. Green are looking forward to a very special event next Sunday. Their youngest son, Jon, will be married to Melanie Kay Davison Sunday
 afternoon in Texhoma, Oklahoma.

Jon graduated from CHS in 1972 and went to Weatherford
 Junior College on a basketball scholarship. From there he transferred to WT where he holds membership in Alpha Chi and Sigma Sigma Sigma.

It was through the activities at the B.S.U. on campus that Jon and Melanie met. They've since discovered several coincidences
 in each other's lives that make it evident that the two of them were "made for each other."

One of the best evidences of
 that is the fact that both Jon and Melanie were born in the same hospital in Perryton, and were delivered by the same doctor.

Melanie grew up in Texhoma
 and her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 John Riley Davison now live in Lazbuddie. Mr. Davison is the principal of the Lazbuddie School and Mrs. Davison is a 6th grade teacher there. (That's also another coincidence, since Marguerite Green teaches a 6th grade class at Gene Howe.)

Marguerite, her daughter Mrs.
 Keith (Mikki) Milsap, Joni and Meloni Marguerite Milsap, all of Canadian, and Beryl Jett, a family friend from Laverne, Okla., all attended a recent shower for Melanie in Texhoma.

Jon Green will graduate in May from WT and plans to begin work on his Master's Degree.
 Melanie is a sophomore student at WT.

Marguerite and Bob Green's older son, George, his wife Shermana and their sons, Scott and Thomas Green will be coming from Seminole to attend the wedding.

Bob's uncle, George, and his wife, Marie Green, will arrive in Canyon this week from Palo Alto, Calif., and plan to spend another week with the Greens
 following the wedding.

Other houseguests will be Ezra
 and Eva Evans of Loveland, Colo. Mrs. Evans is Bob's great aunt.

Marguerite says they're also looking forward to seeing her brother, Clarence Henricks, and his family in Texhoma this weekend. The Henricks are residents of Logan, Oklahoma.

BETTY (MRS. D.A.) Malson
 came home from the hospital last Monday. Betty says she's feeling better (sort of) following her recent surgery.

She says she is especially grateful to D.A. and their children, Denise and Matt, who had everything in "ship-shape"

condition when she returned home.

JOHNNIE GORDON'S
 3RD Grade Class is proudly displaying the school banner this week. The banner is presented after each PTA meeting to the class that had the most parents
 attending the meeting.

SYMPATHIES ARE EX-TENDED to Richard Kim-brough, whose uncle, Mr. A.T.
 Finch, died last Thursday.
 Services were held on Saturday
 in Plainview.

LYNN GILL, LLD teacher at Gene Howe, and Peggy Canfill, LLD Assistant, are definitely two examples of the kind of dedicated people who work with our children.

I really enjoyed observing
 some of the active first graders who are in the LLD program at our school. Lynn explained to me that the children she teaches all have an average or above average I.Q., but each child has some form of a learning problem
 that needs special attention.

The classroom itself is brightly decorated and is furnished with a variety of equipment. Balance boards and a tumbling mat help
 the children perfect their motor skills.

Several listening stations are set up in the room where each child can work and draw as he listens to different records.

One of the bulletin boards
 features a freckle-faced boy, surrounded by trees, birds and butterflies, with the words,
 "Whenever I am all grown up, I wonder what I'll be."

Part of the classroom activity for the first grade students was a series of exercises designed to develop their coordination. Their teachers also helped the children learn to relax the different muscles of their bodies as they all pretended to be "rag dolls."

The children then played a "game" that was both mental and physical, as they stood in a circle and bounced a large ball to each other.

Each child was numbered in sequence, and had to call out the number of one of the other children before throwing the ball to that child. They were also cautioned to use control as they threw the ball.

The boys and girls in the class
 also tested their memory and ability to follow their teacher's instructions on a special worksheet that Lynn had prepared.

The fine work that our LLD teachers are doing is even more commendable considering the growing numbers of students
 they work with.

Last year there were about 70
 children enrolled in the LLD program at Gene Howe, taught by two fulltime teachers and one part-time aide.

This year there are also around 70 children, but with only one full-time teacher and one part-time aide. It's also interesting to know that of the 70 children in LLD, 32 of those are first graders.

THE 5TH GRADE Boys basketball team did well in the recent Kids, Inc. tournament.
 The boys won their first game against Belmar by a score of 25 to 4. They lost their second game by the close score of 20-19.

Coaching the team this season was Larry Brooks, assisted by Bob Morgan.

MANY THANKS TO all the parents who purchased the Spring Movie Series tickets sold by the Gene Howe PTA last week.

The series of movies, sponsored by the Fox Theatre in Amarillo, began last Saturday and will run for ten weeks. Our school sold 107 sets of tickets,

 with a profit for Gene Howe PTA
 of $53.50.

The Amarillo Area Council of PTA which includes PTA's from all schools in this immediate area (Canyon, Bushland and Amarillo), will also receive $53.50 from our ticket sales.

SOME IMPORTANT COR-RECTIONS: The School Board
 Elections will take place on April 6th. (I don't know where I got the date that I put in last week's column.)

I also made the statement that last year 82 cases of child abuse
 were reported to the Department of Welfare for Potter and Randall Counties. That number was actually 82 cases per month.

We Offer The Canyon Community The Counsel Of Our Minister

Terry White

ministry center in Dallas.

Since coming to Canyon,
 Terry has helped the Christian Church through its most ambitious building program. The church has remodeled its sanctuary, completely renovated its educational building, and fashioned a delightful fellowship hall from the old floral shop next door. In addition to his service with the church, Terry serves through the United Campus Ministry,

the Ministerial Association, the Library Board for the city of Canyon, the Friends of the Library, the Canyon Community Family Service organization, Planned Parenthood, Big Brothers, and many other worthwhile organizations.

Terry's wife, Emily, supports
 him in his service at the church and in the community, and serves as a teacher in the English Department of Canyon
 Junior High School.

The butterfly, symbol of resurrection, represents the main theme of his life and work, as he sees resurrection
 and hope in the coming of each new day, the beginning of each new season, the conquering of each new fear, the healing of each new physical or mental ailment, and in all other of life's experiences.

"These are the sorghums I'd plant if I farmed in this area."

Jim Higdon
 AGRONOMY SERVICE DIRECTOR

"Drouth, disease, insects, wind storms . . . taking everything into account that can plague a crop in this area, these are the sorghums I'd go with."

It's my job to know which are the best varieties for each locale in the states of Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico. For the last five years I've had Crop Information Centers, Standard Comparison Tests and Uniform Strip Tests
 in this immediate area. In these carefully controlled tests, I've evaluated most of the sorghum varieties a farmer might consider planting. I've had the same headaches and frustrations you've had. My plantings have suffered the same weather conditions, epidemics and infestations yours have.

Based on these tests, there is no doubt in my mind
 what I'd plant in 1976 if I farmed hereabouts.

8311

8311 is a champion producer of high test weight, yellow endosperm grain. Pioneer introduced this golden bronze hybrid three years ago and it's been setting yield records in this area ever since. One reason is its ability to yield in the face of too wet or too dry weather, insects or disease. Another reason for the high yields is that 8311 tends to adjust its maturity to the growing season in a particular area. Whatever else you plant . . . put in some 8311.

8501

An outstanding new yellow endosperm hybrid with about the same maturity as 846.
 This hybrid has a superior yield record. The plant has excellent roots and stalks.
 Heads exert well above the flag leaf and are uniform in height. Pioneer brand 8501 has good tolerance to smut, MDMV, downy mildew and greenbugs. It performs well under stress and has semi-open heads that add to its good appearance.

A WORD ABOUT GREENBUGS

Tolerance to both greenbugs and maize dwarf mosaic plus high yield potential give these two sorghum varieties an economically significant advantage that you'll want to consider for your grain sorghum crop in 1976.

Performance of seeds or the crop produced therefrom may be adversely affected by factors beyond our control including environmental conditions, insects and diseases. The limitation of warranty and remedy attached to each bag of Pioneer brand seed is a part of the terms and conditions of the sale thereof.
